MEMORANDUM

Date: August 30, 2006

To: The Governing Board Members

From:
Joseph T. Edmiston, FAICP, Executive Officer

Subject: Agenda Item X: Special recognition of former Wildlife Corridor Conservation Authority Advisory Committee Members, Charles Hanson, Bill Kowalik, and Richard Zinsley, for extraordinary accomplishments.

Background: The following Advisory Committee Members have resigned: Charles Hanson, Bill Kowalik, and Richard Zinsley. Their contributions to the Wildlife Corridor Conservation Authority (WCCA) are greatly appreciated.

Charles Hanson, a long-time WCCA Advisory Committee member, was involved in the Whittier Park and Recreation Committee, CTAC, Friends of the Whittier Hills Association, Whittier Chamber of Commerce, Whittier Historical Society, and Whittier Rotary Club.

Bill Kowalik, a long-time Advisory Committee member, created the video Saving Open Space – The Puente Chino Hills Wildlife Corridor – Hills for Everyone (in 2001), with his wife Jill (who has since passed away). He is currently working on part 2 of the video. Bill has moved to northern California.

Richard Zinsley, a La Habra Heights resident since 1976, was involved with the aeronautics department, Mount San Antonio College and Angeles Volunteer Association, Angeles National Forest, and was a volunteer with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Los Angeles Maritime Museum, and the National Weather Service.

A card for each former member will be passed out at the meeting for Board members to sign. Board members may want to add any personal reminiscences about any of these former members at the meeting.
